SUPPLEMENTAL EDUCATIONAL SERVICES COMPARISON
January, 2014
Modified Elements

Original SES Requirements/Tenets (2008 Regulations/Guidance)	SES Changes Based on the Flexibility Waiver	SES for Students: 2014-2015
State-Approved Provider List was managed by the state including an application process, evaluation process and approval.	State-Approved Provider List; district could reduce the number of providers. Parents need to be involved in selection.	School districts, with the input of parents, will determine from whom and how the additional tutoring/supports will be provided. Flexible options could include: online, in home, after school, extended year, etc. At a minimum, districts, with the capacity to do so, should provide at least three options, at each school for parents, including an outside provider, based on the recommendations above. District submits a plan to the state as part of the Consolidated Application, which takes into account the needs of students to be served with the program.
2 Windows at least 2 weeks long to solicit services to parents of eligible students	Only one window required.	District will provide a "reasonable" timeframe to inform parents and provide sufficient opportunity for sign-up. Parents will have a choice of multiple programs.
The per pupil amount for services by approved providers is set by the Title I per pupil amount set by USDE	The per pupil amount for services by approved providers is set by the Title I per pupil amount set by USDE	The tutoring fee will be negotiated by the district with applicable vendors. Must be reasonable, necessary and sufficient to meet the minimum required hours (20) for each eligible student from each eligible school.
Oversight of approved providers is the responsibility of the state	Oversight of approved providers is the responsibility of the state	Oversight of providers is the responsibility of the school district, including oversight of the data submitted to the state