Program Descriptions

Colorado Community Mental Health Centers (CMHCs)	Colorado's Public mental health system currently includes seventeen (17) Community Mental Health Centers (CMHCs), five (5) Behavioral Health Organizations (BHOs) and six (6) specialty clinics. The Colorado Department of Human Services, Division of Behavioral Health, contracts with community mental health centers to provide mental health services to non-Medicaid recipients. CMHCs are part of Colorado's BHO system. BHOs arrange or provide for medically necessary mental health services to Coloradans with Medicaid in their service areas. http://www.colorado.gov/cs/Satellite/CDHS-BehavioralHealth/CBON/1251581449824
Colorado Division of Veterans Affairs	The Colorado Division of Veterans Affairs is within the Colorado Department of Military & Veterans Affairs. It is the state agency that is mandated by state statute to assist veterans and their family members and survivors in securing any benefits they may be entitled to because of service in the military. The Division does this by serving as a central source of information on veterans benefits, rights and issues; and by training, directing and assisting the county veterans service officers who are the local veterans assistance agencies in every county in Colorado. http://www.dmva.state.co.us/page/va
Colorado Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR)	The Division of Vocational Rehabilitation assists individuals whose disabilities result in barriers to employment to succeed at work and live independently. DVR conducts their business through nineteen offices located throughout Colorado, each serving individuals with all types of physical and mental disabilities. To find the location nearest you, go to the website below and type in your town/city. Also, if you prefer to call the toll free number (866.870.4595) to ask questions or find the location nearest to you, they will be happy to answer your questions and will transfer you to the location nearest you at no long distance cost to you. http://www.dvrcolorado.com/locations.php
Colorado Housing Authorities (HA)	Public housing was established to provide decent and safe rental housing for eligible low-income families, the elderly, and persons with disabilities. Public housing comes in all sizes and types, from scattered single family houses to high-rise apartments for elderly families. An HA determines your eligibility based on: 1) annual gross income; 2) whether you qualify as elderly, a person with a disability, or as a family; and, 3) U.S. citizenship or eligible immigration status. http://www.colorado.gov/cs/Satellite/DOLA-Main/CBON/1251592229664

This document was funded by CMS grant funds, the MIG program and the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA) No. 93.7680.

Colorado Community Centered Boards (CCB)	Colorado Community Centered Boards are private non-profit organizations designated in statute as the single entry point into the long-term service and support system for persons with developmental disabilities. Each CCB has a non-overlapping geographic service region of one to ten counties. CCBs are responsible case management services including intake, eligibility determination, service plan development, arrangement for services, delivery of services (either directly and/or through purchase), monitoring, and many other functions. http://denveroptions.org/ccb-list
Departments of Human Services and/or Social Services	The Departments of Human Services and/or Social Services provide services which assist individuals and families to achieve self-sufficiency and social well being. Services provided by these departments include financial assistance for shelter, food and medical care. Services may be provided either directly by department personnel, and/or through collaborations or contracts with other community agencies. These departments serve Colorado's most vulnerable populations. http://www.colorado.gov/cs/Satellite/CDHS-Main/CBON/1251590215770
Independent Living Centers	Centers for independent living (CILs) are private, nonprofit corporations that provide services to maximize the independence of individuals with disabilities and the accessibility of the communities they live in. Centers are funded in part by the Department of Education, Rehabilitation Services Administration, Independent Living Branch, to provide, among other things, several core services: advocacy, Independent living skills training, Information and referral, and peer counseling. http://www.ilru.org/html/publications/directory/colorado.html
Workforce Center Contacts	Workforce Centers across the state of Colorado serve job seekers, employers and employees by providing a wide array of employment and training services at no charge. Services are for the general public and every Workforce Center has a resource room customized to meet the needs of job-seekers by providing Internet access, fax and copy machines, courtesy phones, reference materials and lists of job postings. http://www.yourworkforcecenter.com/WFCDir/Default.aspx
