2013 NAEP: CO Math 4th Grade Results Graphics

2013 Math Grade 4: Average Scale Score (Figure 1)

Higher
Not significantly different
Lower

Figure 1 shows how Colorado performed in the 2013 NAEP Math assessment in comparison to the other 49 states, the District of Columbia and the Department of Defense schools. This is a comparison using the average scale score for each state. States shaded green scored higher than Colorado. Yellow-shaded states scored the same and red-shaded states scored lower. Because NAEP results are based on samples, there is a margin of error associated with each score or percentage. Therefore, only those differences in scores or percentages that meet NAEP's standards for statistical significance are reported.

2013 Math Grade 4: Comparison to other states (Table 1)

Table 1 shows how Colorado performed in comparison to other states in average scale score. CO, the focal state, is shaded blue. States shaded green performed higher than CO. Only Minnesota, Massachusetts and New Hampshire scored higher. States/jurisdictions that are shaded yellow performed about the same as CO. The 15 states that scored the same as CO are shaded yellow and listed below in rank order with their respective scores.

Figure 2 shows how Colorado performed in comparison to other states/jurisdictions in the grade 42013 NAEP Math assessment in average scale score. Three states performed higher than CO. Fifteen states/jurisdictions scored the same as CO. Last, thirty-three states scored lower than CO.

Average Scale Score: CO v. the National Public (Figure 3)

Figure 3 shows how CO compares to the National Public in the 2013 grade 4 NAEP Math assessment in average scale score. CO had an average scale score of 247 and the National Public sample had a score of 241. CO performed significantly higher than the National Public in the math assessment. In addition, both CO and the National Public scored significantly higher than they did in the 2011 test.

2013 Math Grade 4: Average Scores Trend for CO and Nation (public): Figure 4

*/*Significantly different than 2013

Figure 4 shows a comparison of the grade 4 trend results from 1992 to 2013 for CO and the National Public using average scale score. A score with an asterisk means that it is significantly different than the $\mathbf{2 0 1 3}$ score. There are no scores between 1996 and 2003 as Colorado did not participate in testing those years.

Percent of Students Scoring at Proficient or Above (Figure 5)

* Significantly higher than 2011

Figure 5 shows the percent of students for CO and the National Public scoring at the Proficient and above achievement levels (Proficient and Advanced) on the 2013 grade four math test. CO had 50 percent of its students that scored at the Proficient and above achievement levels. The National Public had 42 percent of the students that scored at the Proficient and above achievement levels. Colorado had significantly more students score at Proficient and above than the National Public. The National Public had a higher percentage of students scoring at Proficient or above in 2013 than in 2011. Colorado did not have any significant difference in students scoring at Proficient or above in 2013 compared to 2011.

Achievement Level Percentages and Average Score Results (Figure 6)

Figure 6 shows the following:In 2013, the average score of fourth-grade students in Colorado was 247. This was higher than the average score of 241 for public school students in the nation.The average score for students in Colorado in 2013 (247) was higher than their average score in 2011 (244) and in 1992 (221).The percentage of students in Colorado who performed at or above the NAEP Proficient level was 50 percent in 2013. This percentage was not significantly different from that in 2011 (47 percent) and was greater than that in 1992 (17 percent).
$\square$ The percentage of students in Colorado who performed at or above the NAEP Basic level was 87 percent in 2013. This percentage was greater than that in 2011 ( 84 percent) and in 1992 (61 percent).

2013 Math Grade 8: Average Scale Score (Figure 1)

Figure 1 shows how Colorado $8^{\text {th }}$ graders performed in the 2013 NAEP Math assessment in comparison to the other 49 states, the District of Columbia and the Department of Defense schools. This is a comparison using the average scale score for each state. States shaded green scored higher than Colorado. Yellow-shaded states scored the same and red-shaded states scored lower. ## Average Scale Score: CO v. the National Public (Figure 3)

Figure 3 shows how CO compares to the National Public in the $\mathbf{2 0 1 3}$ grade 8 NAEP Math assessment in average scale score. CO had an average scale score of 290 and the National Public sample had a score of 284. CO performed significantly higher than the National Public in the math assessment. The National Public scored significantly higher than it did in the $\mathbf{2 0 1 1}$ test. Colorado did not score significantly different than it did in the 2011 test.

Figure 5 shows the percent of students for CO and the National Public scoring at the Proficient and above achievement levels (Proficient and Advanced) on the 2013 grade eight math test. CO had 42 percent of its students that scored at the Proficient and above achievement levels. The National Public had 34 percent of the students that scored at the Proficient and above achievement levels. Colorado had significantly more students score at Proficient and above than the National Public in the 2013 NAEP $8^{\text {th }}$ grade math test. The National Public had a higher percentage of students scoring at Proficient or above in $\mathbf{2 0 1 3}$ than in 2011. Colorado did not have any significant difference in students scoring at Proficient or above in 2013 compared to 2011.
