

We want to encourage our adults to become owls.

O – Observe what their child is doing.

W – Wait to let their child take the lead. Give the child time to process.

L – Listen to the message, the emotion, and the body language. Conversations should be two-way.