

CAEPA Rendezvous 2009 Scholarship Application

Terms of the Scholarship

The winner of a scholarship will receive paid registration to the August 6-7, 2009 Rendezvous Conference, which includes a year's membership in CAEPA and all food during the event. Pre-conference sessions, transportation, and hotel costs are not included.

Qualification Requirements

Applicants must be currently involved in adult education or preparing to enter the field within the year. CAEPA members will receive first consideration for the scholarship. Application deadline is June 5, 2009.

Applicant's Information

Name _____

Address _____

Telephone _____ E-mail _____

Program Name _____

Primary area of practice (check one): ESL ABE GED Family Literacy
 Other (please explain) _____

CAEPA Member: Yes No

1. Why do you think you should receive a CAEPA Rendezvous scholarship?
2. Will anyone else from your program be attending the 2009 CAEPA conference?
 Yes No If yes, estimate how many will attend from your program.
3. Scholarship recipients are encouraged to share the information received at the conference with colleagues. How will you accomplish this?

4. Scholarship recipients are also encouraged to implement information received at the conference. What information will you try to access at the conference, and what knowledge do you hope to implement as a result of attending?

5. Will you be able to attend the conference if you do not receive this scholarship?

6. Will this be your first CAEPA conference? Yes No

7. This year's conference will be held outside the Denver Metro area, in Breckenridge, Colorado. If you are awarded a scholarship, will you or your program be able to cover the costs of travel and accommodations during your stay? Yes No

Please e-mail completed form to Pamela.herrlein@denvergov.org. Scholarship winners will be notified by June 15, 2009.