Colorado School IPM 2014 Summer Meeting

June 30, 2014

Professional Learning & Conference Center 15771 East 1st Avenue, Aurora, CO

ENVIRONMENTAL

IPM Supports Green & Sustainable Environments

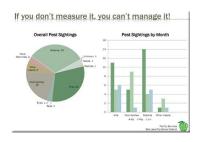

ECONOMIC -

Saves Money

SOCIAL -Healthy Kids Stay In School

"You can't manage what you don't measure"

iPest Manager

a web-based application that tracks pest incidents/sightings, pest control methods and costs, pesticide use, and allows managers to make data-driven decisions to evaluate and manage an IPM program.

Ryan Davis, Utah State University – mice Scott Harvey, Colorado University – rats Roger Reyes, Denver Public Schools – bed bugs

pest issues using IPM

BENEFITS OF IMPLEMENTING IPM IN SCHOOLS

"Kids Learn Better In Healthy Environments"

Katie Navin, Executive Director Colorado Alliance for Environmental Education

"EPA's Role in Keeping Classrooms Bug Free"

Sherry Glick National Expert For School IPM EPA Center of Expertise for School IPM

"Pest Control Treadmill" - Join us and discover alternatives to the treadmill

Children with asthma miss a combined 14.4 million school days a year, which is about 80,000 a day. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

30 minute sessions on how to deal with current

IPM IS MORE THAN BUGS

A healthy school environment is one of eight core components in the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, or CDC, model "Healthy Youth! Coordinated School Health Program".

Morning Agenda

7:30 – 8:15 Coffee & Rolls (provided)

8:15 - 8:30 Welcome & Introduction 8:30 – 9:00 EPA's Role in Keeping

Classrooms Bug Free

9:00-9:30 Overview

9:30 - 10:00 Kids Learn Better in Healthy Environments

10:00 - 10:30 Break 10:30 - 11:15 iPest Manager

11:15 - Noon Pending

lunch break

LUNCH

(provided)

Noon - 12:30

Afternoon Agenda

12:45 – 2:45 Pest Roundtable

2:45 - 3:00 Wrap Up Closing

> The following displays will be available throughout the day:

Emerald Ash Borer School IPM Toolbox EPA – Healthy Indoor Environments

School IPM Visit: http://ipm.agsci.colostate.edu/

www.ccsipm.wordpress.com

schoolipm

Colorado Coalition for School IPM

an alliance of organizations committed to kids' well-being

970-491-1377

CONTACT: Deb Young

Deborah.Young@colostate.edu Colorado