Diversity Connects

Diversity Summit for Colorado's Libraries

SAVE THE DATES: July 17-18, 2008

Colorado Mountain College
Glenwood Springs

"Books and other library resources should be provided for the interest, information, and enlightenment of all people of the community the library serves."

The Library Bill of Rights

Colorado's communities are becoming increasingly diverse. A challenge? Certainly. An opportunity? Definitely.

How can you:

- build leadership?
- assess needs of diverse populations?
- create engaging services for diverse populations?
- integrate diversity initiative into your service plans?

The Colorado State Library's Service to Special Populations Committee invites you to a Diversity Summit for all types of libraries, to build leadership, integrate diversity to existing plans, assess needs for such services, and engage diverse populations. Featuring:

- Yolanda Cuesta, nationally recognized speaker on library diversity
- Maureen O'Connor, Director of Library Services Queens Library NY
- Concrete strategic planning for all types of libraries: public, school, academic, special
- Leadership development
- Information sharing
- Time and setting to think, reflect, and plan

The cost for early registration, meals, and shared double room (dorm style) is ONLY $75. (Other charges may apply for single room, commuter attendance, etc.)

More information will be available in early April at the Special Populations Web site,
