Celebrate a Winning Team

Principals & School Librarians: Ingredients for Increased Student Achievement

WHAT: "Celebrate a Winning Team" is a way to celebrate and acknowledge your principal for supporting an effective school library program and academic achievement for ALL students.

This celebration is a pre-conference program at the 2008 Colorado Association of Libraries Annual Conference, which is open to everyone who is interested in the success of school libraries. Participants must register for the pre-conference.

WHO: This pre-conference is for school librarians. School principals attending with their librarians will have their registration paid for. District library leaders are also welcome to attend.

WHERE: Marriott Denver Tech Center, 4900 S. Syracuse Street, Denver
(Located right off I-25 & Bellevue) Find details at: <http://marriott.com/dentc>

WHEN: Thursday, November 6, 2008

WE ARE PLEASED TO HAVE THE 2007 WINNERS OF THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF SCHOOL LIBRARIANS (AASL) SCHOOL LIBRARY MEDIA PROGRAM OF THE YEAR AWARD AS OUR GUEST SPEAKERS.

Come hear Vince Barnes, Principal and Carl A. Harvey, II, Teacher Librarian from North Elementary in Noblesville, Indiana, share with us how to form a collaborative partnership including the entire staff for the academic achievement of all students.

Get ideas on how to implement a similar type of collaborative program at your own school and in your own district.

CONFERENCE THEME: "Communities and Libraries" and we are pleased to announce that this will be CAL's first ever "green" conference. <http://www.cal-webs.org/>
