Workshop Content

Morning Session:

Summer Reading 2009: “Be Creative @ Your Library”

- Let’s get the creative juices flowing!
- Tips, ideas, lists, etc, from the CSLP manual.
- Bring some REALLY original, inventive ideas to share, too!

New!! Teens – not just summer reading!

- “Express Yourself @ your Library”
- Connecting Communities
- Teen Wellness
- Educating Teens

Afternoon Session:

EVERY CHILD READY TO READ @your library

Colorado Libraries for Early Literacy (CLEL)

- CLEL in action: resources and advocacy (including the NEW website!)
- Literacy-enhanced storytimes:
- Join the network of library staff actively using early literacy to serve their communities and gain recognition and support.

Youth Services – advocacy and evaluation

- Fast Facts and the “Robbie Report”
- The Beta Test – Colorado online registration software
- What’s your elevator speech? 30 seconds to tell the tale!

FINANCIAL SUPPORT AVAILABLE TO SOUTHWEST LIBRARY STAFF

Due to limited resources, we are unable to offer these workshops in the southwest quadrant of Colorado this year. However, travel reimbursement is available to staff from the southwest who wish to attend. First-come, first-served for one representative per library facility. Additional people from a given library may be added if funds are available. Send an e-mail to Patricia Froehlich, froehlich_p@cde.state.co.us with complete contact information and why you wish to attend.
