

DBTAC Rocky Mountain ADA Center
3630 Sinton Road, Suite 103,
Colorado Springs, CO 80907
(719) 444-0268 (Voice/TTY), 1-800-949-4232
<http://www.adainformation.org/>

Contact: Candice Brandt
cbrandt@mtc-inc.com

The Rocky Mountain Disability & Business Technical Assistance Center (DBTAC Rocky Mountain ADA Center) is one of 10 regional centers funded by the National Institute on Disability and Rehabilitation Research (NIDRR), a division of the U.S. Department of Education. Their mission is to provide information on the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) to individuals and organizations in Colorado, Utah, Montana, Wyoming, North Dakota, and South Dakota. The center is operated by Meeting the Challenge, Inc. which is located in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Opportunities for libraries include:

- October is Disability Employment Awareness month.
- Resource Center on the American with Disabilities Act.
- Free quizzes online that can be used for cultural competency training along with other activities or training.
- Training Tools section has accessible statistics, quotes, and other items for use in marketing, grants, and presentations.
- Multitude of training opportunities, materials, and options:
  - Needs assessment form will help you determine what training is best for your library.
  - Will send trainers to deliver content or provide staff to attend an event as an exhibitor or man an information booth.
  - Training fees are reasonable. One hour classes $75-$300.
  - In-house training schedule for the public. $15 per person including lunch or dinner.
  - Distance Education opportunities
- Videos and publications available (most for sale) for training.
- Free electronic monthly newsletter.