

School Environment Profile

Date: _____

Indicate "where your school is" for each:	Not happening	Starting to happen	Definitely happening	Don't know
There are adequate opportunities for students to be physically active
There are adequate opportunities for students to learn about nutrition
Teachers integrate nutrition education into other subject areas
Teachers use treats to reward students for good behavior
Teachers have opportunities to be physically active at school.
Classroom parties/celebrations have healthy food choices.
Our teachers have adequate resources to teach nutrition
Students are involved in school meal/menu improvement
Our staff is concerned about childhood obesity
Our school is taking action to reduce students' risk for obesity
School meals include healthy choices
Teachers are committed to improving their own health.
Foods served at school events include healthy choices.
Nutrition education is a priority at our school.
Snacks children bring to school are generally healthy

One way that our school environment could become "healthier" would be:

One way that our school really supports the health of our students is: