

Comprehensive Health Education Grants

2005-2006

Adams 12 5-Star Schools

- Complete a review of the extent of comprehensive health education
- Better engage the community
- Improve integration of health, wellness, and pro-social growth into other instructional areas
- Provide training and materials to support and improved health education program that targets risk factors prevalent in the student population

Brush School District RE-2J

- Address the lack of health materials for special education and ESL students at all levels
 - Purchase new curriculum for secondary health classes and for student enrichment programs
 - Provide teacher training
 - Hire a part-time assistant for the health coordinator
-

Center Consolidated School District 26JT

- Develop an infrastructure to support a coordinated school health program to ensure ongoing integration throughout the district and community

Cherry Creek School District 5

- Promote community and parental involvement
- Promote abstinence from high risk behaviors
- Foster positive self-esteem
- Reinforce refusal and decision-making skills
- Continue comprehensive health education program
- Assess and improve instruction in health education
- Align assessment efforts with enhancing student performance and achievement with CSAP testing

Durango 9R

- Provide staff development in nutrition and physical activity
- Purchase materials to supplement district curriculum
- Utilize a home component module to enhance the critical role of families in preventing health risk behaviors
- Train staff and community members to use the Health Education Curriculum Tool

East Grand School District 2

- Provide teachers with state of the art professional development and curricula training

Arapahoe County School District 1—Englewood

- Review and revise health and safety-related curriculum, instruction, and assessment
- Continue planning process to further develop the Coordinated Health Committee and refine its scope of operation
- Review the results of the needs assessment
- Identify gaps and duplications within current practices and programs
- Realign health and safety education throughout the district

Fowler R4J School District

- Foster positive health behaviors through increased health knowledge
- Modify the high-risk behaviors of students
- Enhance current health program
- Purchase an elementary health curriculum

La Plata County School District 11 JT—Ignacio

- Continue support of comprehensive health education
- Hire a part-time health coordinator
- Support the Health Promotion Wave curriculum
- Purchase interactive support materials for the curriculum

Ouray R-1

- Implement a health program that include personal fitness and nutrition education
- Involve parents in quarterly meetings

Park County School District RE-2

- Concentrate on middle school
- Encourage professional development in health education

Platte Valley RE-7

- Continue development of a local health advisory council
- Designate a health coordinator
- Train school health teams
- Review the health education curriculum
- Purchase new curriculum and materials
- Strengthen and expand existing health and prevention-related activities
- Address the identified gaps in the current health education program

Pueblo District 60

- Focus on the comprehensive school health education needs of schools that foster healthy behavior through increased health knowledge and the modification of risk behaviors
 - Research and resource map the level of implementation of the preK-12 CHE curricula
 - Provide professional development based on the results of the research/resource mapping
-

Garfield County School District RE-1 Roaring Fork

- Implement the Know Your Body health education curriculum at the elementary school level
- Train new middle school teachers in the Everybody HIV prevention curriculum
- Implement a new, research-based substance abuse program at the middle schools in collaboration with students, parents, school staff and community agencies
- Connect with students with needed health resources to improve student health and academic achievement

Salida School District R-32J

- Incorporate the recommendations from the comprehensive needs assessment
- Create a curriculum that will be implemented in 2006-2007

Steamboat Springs RE-2

- Continue to develop a sequential, comprehensive health education program to be implemented district wide throughout preK-12
- Identify essential knowledge and skills and develop appropriate assessments for each
- Create an implementation and training plan for a school initiative to promote community-wide asset building
- Identify school and community partners, train key personnel, and implement school and community programs and partnerships which address healthy lifestyle choices

Summit School District

- Address existing gaps in secondary health education curriculum
- Provide professional development for health teachers and community members
- Formally review the curriculum
- Participate in the Healthy Kids Colorado survey for all students grade 6-12

Weld RE-3J -- Keenesburg

- Train teachers in the area of positive behavior support
- Add community and student members to the Health Advisory Council
- Survey students with the Search Institutes Profiles of Student Life
- Supplement classroom health curriculums
- Implement a Train the Trainers model to build capacity in the district
- Train the mental health staff

