

Specific Learning Disabilities: Eligibility Criteria and Identification Process

This four-week online class provides the foundation for effective implementation of the SLD eligibility criteria and identification process. Key content includes...

- State and federal laws related to SLD eligibility
- Relationship of RtI to SLD identification
- Referral and evaluation process
- Application of the SLD eligibility criteria
- Required documentation
- Special considerations
- Implications for professional roles and practice

Credit options: Participants may choose to earn graduate credit available through the University of Colorado – Colorado Springs for $50 (1 credit) OR Colorado recertification professional development hours at no cost (16 hours).

The Class Syllabus, including an outline of the class content and credit requirements, is available on the CDE/SLD webpage:

<http://www.cde.state.co.us/cdesped/SD-SLD.asp>

REGISTRATION

Registration Deadline: March 27, 2012 (However, the class may fill prior to this date.)

Individual Online Registration Only:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/S/SLD2012>

Please contact Melissa Chaffin at 303-866-6819 if you are having difficulty registering or have questions concerning the class.