

Colorado Special Education Advisory Committee

Notice of Vacancies

Greetings!

The Colorado Special Education Advisory Committee (CSEAC) is a state-level committee mandated by federal and state law. Members are interested in the quality of education received by children and youth with disabilities. The committee includes parents of and individuals with disabilities, educational service providers, administrators and representatives from a variety of related agencies. Participation is statewide and representative of diverse disabilities.

The committee is currently seeking dedicated people from across the state for the purpose of providing policy guidance with respect to special education and related services for children with disabilities in Colorado.
