

Multilingual Learners: A Collaborative Approach to Success

Grand Junction, CO
Colorado Mesa University

8:30 am – 4:00 pm
Thursday, June 15

COLORADO
Department of Education

This advanced training will focus on the evaluation of multilingual learners using dynamic assessment strategies, intervention practices that capitalize on multi-disciplinary service delivery of evidence-based practices for multilingual students, and opportunities to hear from experts in the field and action plan with your team for implementation of these concepts.

This training is for Colorado school professionals who support Multilingual Learners with Disabilities

(ELL Teachers, Speech-Language Pathologists, Special Education Directors, School-Based Mental Health Professionals, and other Related Service Professionals)

Priority is given to professionals registered as a team. Registration does not guarantee enrollment in the training or admission. The class facilitators will review all registrants and then, using a rubric, determine who will and will not attend.
