		Pearson Language Central English Language Development ©2013 (Language Central) is a systematic program that provides sustained English development instruction in a manageable amount of time. Academic language is explicitly taught, instruction is appropriate to the student's language proficiency level, and the focus is on oral and written language production.	English language learners (ELLs) in grades K–5

If an intervention, describe what component of reading it addresses:
English language development

Grade Level: (K) (1) (2) (3)

(Please circle the grade level(s) that the program is designed for.)

Program Summary:

(This section should be limited to 200 words and is your opportunity to let schools or districts know why they should choose this program.)

Language Central focuses on English language development in grades K–5 to help move ELLs to reclassification. It can be used alongside any core reading program but is conceptually coherent with Reading Street and Prentice Hall Literature. It provides teaching strategies to integrate students from the newcomer level to advanced levels of language proficiency.
