K-3 Teacher Training Deadlines

By the beginning of the 2022-23 school year, each district that receives READ funding must ensure that K–3 teachers complete evidence-based training in teaching reading and pass an end of course assessment.

Deadlines for K-3rd grade teachers hired on or before June 1, 2022:

- August 1, 2022: Evidence-based training in teaching reading must be completed
- August 15, 2022: Documentation must be submitted to the Colorado Online Licensing (COOL) system

K-3rd grade teachers hired after June 1, 2022, will need to register for a training as soon as they receive their district email address and have it completed soon after.

Teachers must be prepared to show evidence that they are enrolled and progressing in a CDE approved training.

Colorado READ Act

Pathways for Meeting READ Act Teacher Training Requirement

A teacher is deemed to have successfully completed evidence-based training in teaching reading if the LEP submits evidence that the teacher:

Successfully completed a CDE provided reading training designed to meet this training requirement and passed the end of course assessment of learning

Passed a CDE approved undergraduate or graduate reading course and passed the end of course assessment of learning

Passed a CDE approved district or BOCES reading course or a course appropriate for license renewal and passed the end of course assessment of learning

Holds a state or Colorado endorsement as a Reading Teacher or Reading Specialist

Successfully completed a training program included on the department's advisory list of professional development and passed the end of course assessment of learning

State Board approved assessment of knowledge or teaching reading

- Praxis Teaching Reading: Elementary 5205 exam with a passing score of 159 or higher

 Teachers will have to have completed evidence-based training in teaching reading that aligns with the READ Act and Rule

Frequently Asked Questions

Question:

Who must complete the READ Act Teacher Training?

All K-3rd grade teachers as defined by the READ Act and Rule are required to complete the evidence-based training in teaching reading.

Language from the READ Act:

(6)(a) By the beginning of the 2021-22 school year and continuing for each school year thereafter, each local education provider that received per-pupil intervention money or a grant through the early literacy grant program in any budget year starting with the 2019-20 budget year shall ensure that each teacher employed to teach kindergarten or any of grades one through three successfully completes or has successfully completed evidence-based training in teaching reading. To comply with this subsection (6)(a), a local education provider must submit evidence, as described in subsection (6)(b) of this section, that each teacher employed to teach kindergarten or any of grades one through three has successfully completed evidenced-based training in teaching reading....

Definition of teacher in READ Act Rule:

The professional responsible for the literacy instruction of the student(s) and may include the main instructor for a class, an instructional coach, reading interventionist, special education teacher, Title 1 teacher or other personnel who are identified as effective in the teaching of reading.

Question:

All K-3rd grade teachers hired after June 1, 2022 will need to be included in the fall 2023/24 budget submission reporting period (April 1 – June 30).

- Considerations- district will need time to ensure they have all data complete.

Question:

Can districts access reports from the Colorado Online Licensing system (COOL) that include information on which staff members have met the READ Act teacher training requirement?

Districts will be able to access reports from the Colorado Online Licensing system (COOL) that include information on which staff members have met the READ Act teacher training requirements.

- The READ Act report:
 - Based on the 2020 HR collection and includes the names of any educator in the district that has obtained the READ Act teacher training designation
 - This report also includes the designation code and pathway option the teacher selected to meet the READ Act teacher training requirement
- Individual educator search in COOL
 - Districts can do an individual educator search in COOL
 - Individual educator reports show whether the educator has or has not obtained the READ Act teacher training designation.
 - This report does not include a designation code or the pathway selected by the teacher to meet the READ Act teacher training requirement.

The CDE will be sharing information on how districts can access these reports in the near future.

Question:

Do Any state universities/colleges offer Science or Reading courses that meet the READ Act teacher training requirement?

Two universities have submitted courses that have been approved to meet the READ Act teacher training requirement.

- Because these courses are part of a teacher prep program, they are not posted on the CDE website

Question:

How will CDE communicate READ Act teacher training reporting requirements to districts?

- CDE will be offering multiple informational webinars to support districts.
- It will be the responsibility of the district to communicate and share reporting requirements with their own HR departments.

Question:

Is the expectation that districts share information about the READ Act teacher training with teachers or should teachers attend these webinars?

Teachers are more than welcome to attend the READ Act Teacher Training Update webinars; however, it is the responsibility of the district to inform teachers about the READ Act teacher training requirement. This would include but is not limited to:

- Pathway options available for meeting this requirement
- Deadlines for meeting this requirement
- Submitting documentation to COOL
- District systems for collecting documentation of meeting this requirement

Question:

Can teachers in grades 4 & 5 that complete the READ Act teacher training go ahead and upload their documentation into COOL?

Yes, any licensed teacher that has completed the READ Act teacher training requirement, can upload their documentation to COOL and have the READ Act designation added to their license.

Question:

Do teachers without a license submit their documentation of meeting the READ Act teacher training requirement to COOL?

- Only licensed teachers submit their READ Act teacher training documentation to COOL.
- Teachers without a license will need to complete the Google form on the CDE website to receive more information about how they will need to submit their documentation.
