

Afterschool Snack Program (ASP)

The Afterschool Snack Program (ASP) is a key stepping stone between the National School Lunch Program and the next available meal. For those families struggling with food insecurity the ASP can provide additional assistance for hungry kids in connection with afterschool activities that serves a nutritious and filling snack in the early afternoon hours.

ASP Extended Day

For schools who operate longer than the traditional school day (i.e. schools utilizing 4 day school weeks) the ASP can be served during the regular school day, to all students enrolled at the site. The ASP adds nutritional benefits with limited administrative and labor resources by providing the benefit during the school day.
