Zonta Club of Douglas County

The Zonta Club of Douglas County provided 2,040 meals to children through the Summer Food Service Program. The site consists of many volunteer members that are committed to the support and well-being of the community. These volunteers helped with food service and site activities. This past summer, activities included face painting, bouncy houses, and free library books. The meals are prepared by the local SFA (Douglas County).

Office of Children's Affairs, City/County of Denver

The vision of the Office of Children's Affairs is to deliver a world class City where all children, youth, and their families have the opportunity to succeed. This vision is set into practice by sponsoring 21 sites and serving over 63,000 meals to children during the 2013 Summer Food Service Program.

Food Bank of the Rockies

One in seven Coloradans worry where they'll find their next meal – nearly half are children. Food Bank of the Rockies provides food for more than 350,000 people annually through 1,400 hunger relief partner agencies and direct service programs - Mobile Pantry, Kids Cafe, After School Snacks and Totes of Hope™ for children and seniors. In the summer of 2013, Food Bank of the Rockies sponsored 94 sites and provided over 150,000 meals to children through the Summer Food Service Program.

Care and Share Food Bank

The mission of Care and Share Food Bank is to bridge the gap between hunger and abundance. Care and Share Food Bank sponsored 40 Summer Food Service Program sites and served over 65,000 meals during the summer months in 2013. Each site featured various activities, a few of which were: crafting at the Conejos Library, gardening at the Sangre De Cristo Center for Youth, and dancing at the Southern Ute Boys and Girls Club.
