SWIS Facilitator Certification Training

WHAT: SWIS is a school-wide decision/data system for behavior and discipline. It is one application within the three-tiered information system of the SWIS Suite. This 2 ½ day training focuses on using SWIS, teaching others to use SWIS, working with schools to prepare for SWIS compatibility, and working with teams/coaches to apply a data-based, decision making model.

WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE: School and district personnel who are interested in becoming certified SWIS Facilitators and meet the following criteria:

- Have formal time allocated in their workload to perform Facilitator duties
- Plan to implement the applications with 2 or more schools
- Able to meet with implementing schools at least 5 times in a year to assess school readiness, train staff, and meet with teams to build fluency in using data for decision making.

WHEN:	Wednesday, February 25, 2015	Thursday, February 26, 2015	Friday, February 27, 2015
TIME:	8:30 am – 4:00 pm Lunch on your own	8:30 am – 4:00 pm Lunch on your own	8:30 am – 12:00 pm

Note: Attendance at all three days is required to complete certification requirements through the University of Oregon.
