COLORADO STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

RESOLUTION ON STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

- WHEREAS, the Colorado State Board of Education is charged with improving student achievement; and
- WHEREAS, students themselves have the most significant self-interest in achieving; and
- WHEREAS, students are possessed of unique information and perspectives regarding public education; and
- WHEREAS, the State Board of Education values this information and these perspectives; and
- WHEREAS, the State Board of Education seeks to engage students for their input into policy-making for the improvement of student achievement,

BE IT RESOLVED that the Colorado State Board of Education:

1. Promote student engagement in policy-making dialogue about education in the Colorado Public School System, including the following objectives --
 - Establish effective communications with the Colorado High School Activities Association and local student government bodies/councils;
 - Investigate the creation of an electronic forum within the CDE web site to allow for informal exchange and discussion of information between students, Board members, and CDE staff;
