

Duck on a Bike Storytime

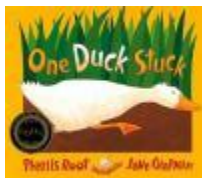

Early Literacy Tip: Animal sounds are really fun in children's books. Young children need to experiment and play with sounds. If you play along with them as they play with sounds you'll help your children learn. You can read more about young children, sounds and literacy from the Center for Early Literacy Learning at http://www.earlyliteracylearning.org/cellpract_pract/toddler/PGPrac_T_SoundsGood_WM.pdf

My Little Red Bike (Sing to the Tune of "Little Red Wagon" and bounce as you sing.)

Bumping up and down on my little red bike.
Bumping up and down on my little red bike.
Bumping up and down on my little red bike.
Won't you be my farm friend?

Duck's been riding through the farmyard.
Duck's been riding through the farmyard.
Duck's been riding through the farmyard.
Won't you be my farm friend?

Bumping up and down on my little red bike.

Won't you be my farm friend?

"Six Little Ducks" (From More Singable Songs for the Very Young by Raffi)

Five little ducks
Went out one day
Over the hills and far away
Mother duck said
"Quack, quack, quack"
But only four little ducks came running back.

Then mother duck
said
"QUACK! QUACK! QUACK!"
And five little ducks came running back.

Old Macdonald had a farm

Old Macdonald had a farm, E-I-E-I-O
And on his farm he had a cow, E-I-E-I-O
With a "moo-moo" here and a "moo-moo" there
Here a "moo" there a "moo"
Everywhere a "moo-moo"
Old Macdonald had a farm, E-I-E-I-O
(continue with more animals)
