

Dietary Modification Decision-making Flowchart

School is notified of a student with a potential need for a modified diet

Has a Medical Statement form been completed?

No

A Medical Statement form must be completed before proceeding.

Yes

Is the info clear and substantive?

No

Upon written permission from the parent or guardian to contact the physician, the school needs to obtain clarified information from the physician or medical authority who completed the Medical Statement.

Yes

Medical Statement-
Non Disability

Signed by a recognized medical authority

OR

Medical Statement-
Dietary Disability

Signed by a licensed physician

Does the district/school choose to provide accommodations for students without a dietary disability?

No

Districts/schools are not required to provide meal modifications for students without a dietary disability.

Yes

Modifications to the meal must still meet the USDA meal pattern requirements.

School is required to provide accommodations specified on the Medical Statement.

Student may already have an IEP or 504 Plan.

School may need to convene a team to review the Medical Statement.