

Focusing on Reading Comprehension

Using Thinking strategies to improve reading comprehension.

Calvin & Hobbes by: Bill Watterson

AM I GETTING THE SKILLS I'LL NEED TO EFFECTIVELY COMPETE IN A TOUGH, GLOBAL ECONOMY? I WANT A HIGH-PAYING JOB WHEN I GET OUT OF HERE! I WANT OPPORTUNITY!

IN THAT CASE, YOUNG MAN,
I SUGGEST YOU START
WORKING HARDER. WHAT YOU
GET OUT OF SCHOOL DEPENDS ON WHAT YOU PUT INTO IT.

THEN FORGET IT.

Constructed Response

- ▶ Who are the characters the author introduces in the beginning of the story? What is the setting?
- ▶ Compare Tacky to the other penguins. How is he like his companions? How is he different from them?
- ▶ How would you describe Tacky at the beginning of the story? As the story progresses, what new adjectives can you add to describe Tacky?

Constructed Response

- ▶ What caused the Hunters to arrive in the penguin's land? What effect does their arrival have on the penguins?
- ▶ At the end of the story, Tacky outwits the Hunters. How does he outwit them? What causes him to be successful? What are some of the outcomes that result from Tacky outwitting the Hunters?
- ▶ What was the author's purpose for writing this story? Give evidence from the story to support your answer.

Thinking Maps: A Language for Literacy

SUMMARIZING FICTION

What do you understand now that you have read and summarized this story?

What are some of the BIG ideas you are learning from this story?

Better learning will come not so much from finding better ways for the teacher to INSTRUCT...

...but from giving the learner better ways to

CONSTRUCT MEANING.
