News Release

Public School Capital Construction Assistance Board Meets Monday, July 13

The next meeting of the Public School Capital Construction Assistance Board is scheduled for Monday, July 13th in Denver from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

The CCAB members will be attending via teleconference. Members of the public who wish to attend the meeting may listen in Suite B-75, 1525 Sherman St., Denver.

The meeting agenda includes:

- Approve minutes from the prior meeting;
- Review an emergency grant from Hayden school district Re-1. This application is a request to replace the fire alarm system at Hayden Valley Elementary School, Hayden, CO;
- Discuss future meetings and meeting sites.

For more information on the rulemaking hearings, contact Ted Hughes, director of division of public school capital construction assistance at 303-866-6948.

About BEST

The BEST legislation increases the level of financial assistance provided to school districts, charter schools and Board of Cooperative

Educational Services (BOCES) for capital construction projects, particularly in those school districts that can't afford to meet their own needs.

The function of the Public School Capital Construction Assistance Board is to protect the health and safety of persons using public school facilities and to maximize student achievement by ensuring public school facilities provide a safe and un-crowded environment that is conducive to student learning.
