

Visit: aspire.omni.org

ASPIRE Core Components and Features

ASPIRE consists of several structural components and features that supports its various uses.

1. A database of time series social and health indicator data organized at the county level
 - a. Data elements are published by secondary sources
 - b. Data are organized by issue categories
2. A database of program resources that includes source of funding, purpose of funding, funded organization, organization information
 - a. Non-profit dataset is populated with a GuideStar Extract and includes basic information such as NTEE code, revenues, etc.
 - b. Funding information entered directly by state and foundation funders
 - c. Funding streams are organized by issue categories
3. Output in the form of Tables, Graphs and Maps
4. Main Page Options – open to the public
 - a. Document library
 - b. Web links
 - c. Quick Indicator Queries
 - d. Quick Resource Queries
 - e. Quick Resource Reports
 - f. Quick Indicator Reports (coming)
5. Community Pages – for an additional fee
 - a. Customized front page, password protected
 - b. Features a-f above
 - c. Needs Assessment Module to create reports
 - d. Data Dashboard to display and track prioritized indicators
6. Under Development
 - a. Wiki Portal for communities to support collaboration and collaborative document authoring
 - b. Password protected data entry module for non-profits to annotate program information
 - c. Search screen to find service providers based on select criteria

For more information on Quick Queries and Reports or customizable community pages, including data dashboards please email us at: aspire@omni.org