

Lead LEA	Amount Funded	Executive Summary	Program Contact
Denver Public Schools	$91,795	Develop 20 new ELL-focused teaching units for Promethean boards that cover a range of grade levels and content areas and develop 5 online teacher PD courses that focus on the best practice instructional strategies for incorporating instructional technology resources into ELL instruction.	Kipp Bentley
Weld County SD Re3J	$200,000	Purchase Promethean interactive white boards for 25 classrooms, video and podcasting technology and help teachers integrate technology into a strategic, focused approach for improving classroom instruction and meeting content standards.	Brigitte Gustafson
Montrose	$196,472	Sustained PD, effectively integrating 21st Century Techonology Standards and using innovative effective instructional practices to meet rigorous academic standards by incorporating Discovery Streaming video and media content with classroom tehcnology tools and a common district-wide web-based platform.	Kirk Henwood
Morgan Re-3 (Assigned to CBOCES)	$499,863	House and deliver PD resources and tools for collaboration across the sstate to 37 districts and 14 BOCES, sserting 152 districts statewide.	Perry Movick
Boulder Valley School District RE-2	$199,980	Pilot program in which a two-district consortium will address the gaps and problems that they have encountered in early-stage development, test and evaluate resources/strategies required for larger-scale application of online and blended learning, and explore potential for future development.	Kurt Levasseur
Adams 14	$181,582	Provide 8 teachers with equipment needed to be a cutting edge classroom, PD for participants and neew standrads aligned with appropriate technology rich lessons.	Dave Tarwater
Burlington (Assigned to ECBOCES)	$200,000	Impact 13 schools districtt and 270 educators, utilizing Intel Teach and Thinkfinity standards-based PD models. Align content with PD os that a great number of teachers will clearly understand the curriculum that should be taught, while utilizing technology to aid in student learning.	Sharon Daxton-Vorce

Greeley-Evans WCSD 6	$200,000	Purchase 15 interactive classrooms consisting of a Promethean board and set of ActivResponse systems. Three classrooms for on-going PD and 12 for secondary integrated math classes. Promethean train the trainer PD, PD from MAST for vodcasts and support for a full time district level educational technology teacher.	Kathi VanSoest
Poudre School District	$192,163	Teachers engaged in pd - participating in 6 trainings and an on-line learning community. Instructional technology coaches will work with teachers and guide them in their professional practice. Teachers will share digital-age learning experiences they develop that integrate 5th grade literacy academic standards with netbook technology to inspire high-need learners to explore and create real world applications.	Jan Borman
Weld Re-8 Schools	$125,000	Purchase promethean boards as well as auxillary student response systems and document cameras. Technology coach will provide promethean board training.	Scott Graham