

Master of Arts & Gifted and Talented Specialist Endorsement Special Education: Gifted and Talented

Offered Online and at the UNC Loveland Center at Centerra + Online (Hybrid)

Become Highly Effective in Teaching the Gifted, Talented and Creative—Earn Your Gifted and Talented Specialist Endorsement and Master of Arts in Special Education: Gifted and Talented Education

Help gifted and talented students develop to their full potential and reach your own potential with an Endorsement and/or a Master's focused on educating the gifted and talented. The curriculum for these programs was developed through a collaborative effort of UNC faculty, colleagues from the public schools, and the Colorado Department of Education to specifically address the new standards for gifted and talented educators.

The Online-Only and Loveland-Online Hybrid (2 Saturdays per course in Loveland, rest of each course online) programs are designed to fit around your schedule, and you can earn your degree or endorsement in two years.

NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED PROGRAM

In 2008, the UNC Gifted and Talented master's degree program received the status of "Nationally Recognized Program" from the National Association for Gifted Children (NAGC) in conjunction with The Association for the Gifted (TAG) of the Council for Exceptional Children and the National Council of Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). UNC's gifted education program is currently the only program with that distinction in the western United States.
