Go Online

- Read our blog which covers topical issues and is a quick place to look for information. You can find it at:
<http://cospl.blogspot.com/>
- Search our catalog of documents, including more than 12,000 that are available online at:
<http://www.cde.state.co.us/stateinfo>
or <http://cospl.coalliance.org>

- Find many guides to state government information:

[http://www.cde.state.co.us/
stateinfo/slstpcollection](http://www.cde.state.co.us/stateinfo/slstpcollection)

These guides are useful for students, educators, officials and the general public. Topics include:

- School Research Topics
- Colorado Business and Economic Information
- Wildlife in Colorado
- Colorado Legislative Information Quick Guide
- Quick Guide to State Government Statistics

We are here to help you get the information you need and help you navigate through state government information.

Borrow Documents

You can borrow state publications in the following ways:

- Make a request using Prospector, the online union catalog for libraries across Colorado, <http://prospectorhome.coalliance.org>
- Visit the State Publications Library during regular business hours. Use a Colorado driver's license or photo ID to check out materials for two weeks.
- Contact your public library or local university/college and ask for assistance in borrowing publications from the State Library in Denver or one of our depository libraries.

State Publications Depository Libraries

The library supports a system of depository libraries across the state. You can access documents in person. Hours of operation and circulation policies vary according to the host library's procedures.
