This presentation will provide you with an overview of the final rule from the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA) regarding the NEW mandatory requirements for the Entry Level Driver Training Rule.

This ruling was initially anticipated to be mandatory in January 2020, however, FMCSA has delayed the mandatory start date until January 2022.

All NEW commercial operators will be required to receive this training, which will include classroom and behind-the-wheel training prior to being able to schedule a road test with the Department of Motor Vehicles to obtain the temporary training permit.

Districts will need to determine, on an individual basis, if they intend to provide the training with district instructors, send trainees to another district, or send trainees to a training facility. This overview will give you the pertinent details to assist you in making that determination.

CDE has already developed the training materials and will be providing on-line instruction and review of the materials prior to distributing them to the districts/charters that intend to become certified instructors.

CDE will be providing an in-depth review of the teaching material (i.e. slide presentation, tests, etc.) over the next several weeks prior to sending the training materials to the providers. Once the intended instructors have completed the in-depth review, they will be provided with a thumb drive with all the current teaching materials - free of charge.

Class dates and times for the in-depth review of the current ELDT training materials will be sent out soon. Please note that registration will be required for these classes.
