

Student Name _____ Date _____

What is YOUR Point of View?

Dear Parent,

We are learning to understand different perspectives by listening and asking questions.

I hope you enjoy this activity with me. This assignment is due _____.

Sincerely,

Student Signature

THINGS TO REMEMBER

Each person has his or her own point of view or perspective.

LET'S DO THIS

First, do this on your own. Think of your point of view.

Write 1 sentence to answer each question about yourself. Do not share this yet.

1. Think of a time when you and a friend disagreed about something. Tell what happened.

2. What is one favorite memory of when you were a little child?

LET'S FIND OUT

Now, pretend that you are a reporter writing an article about an adult in your family.

Work with a family partner. Who is working with you? _____

Ask your family partner the same questions. Write 1 sentence on their point of view.

Here is what to say: Hello! Thank you for helping me understand your point of view about some experiences you had when you were my age. I will ask you three questions. We can talk about each one. Then, I will write one sentence to share your point of view.

1. Think back to when you were my age. What is one example of when you and a friend disagreed about something, and what happened?

2. What is one of your favorite memories of when you were a little child?

3. Read both responses to each question aloud to your family partner.

Discuss: How are our experiences and points of view the same or different?

What is one thing you learned about your family partner from the interview?

HOME-TO-SCHOOL COMMUNICATION

Dear Parent,

Please give your reactions to your child's work on this activity.

Write YES or NO for each statement.

- _____ 1. My child understood the homework and was able to complete it.
- _____ 2. My child and I enjoyed the activity.
- _____ 3. This assignment helped me know what my child is learning in class.

Comment _____

Parent Signature _____