Resolution Recognizing the Contribution Paul Lundeen Has Made to the Education of Children in Colorado

- WHEREAS: Paul Lundeen has served on the State Board of Education since January 2011; and
- WHEREAS: During his term of service, he served as member in 2011 through 2012 and chairman from 2013 through December 2014;
- WHEREAS: Throughout his years of service on the Board, Mr. Lundeen has been a strong advocate for Coloradans having expanded choices in education: parental choice, local control, school choice, innovation, and “back-pack” funding of schools;
- WHEREAS: Mr. Lundeen, along with the Board as a whole, selected Robert Hammond as Commissioner of Education in 2011;
- WHEREAS: Over the course of his service, the State of Colorado has undergone tremendous change in the education arena. He, along with the board, as a whole, worked to improve the Department’s long-term and ongoing efforts to implement Colorado’s education reform agenda.

BE IT
