COLORADO CHILDREN'S AUTHORS

The Colorado Authors poster promotes Colorado authors to Colorado readers. The Children's, Juvenile and Young Adult authors featured here are intended to educate children about the richness and diversity of Colorado authors who write just for them. As we sought to highlight authors in the state who have contributed to Colorado's literary identity, we involved a broad array of experts in the literary field, such as writers and public librarians.

This is a joint project of the Colorado State Library (cde.state.co.us/cdelib) and Colorado Humanities & Center for the Book (coloradohumanities.org). The poster was designed by Nathan Zehr at Mark Mock Design Associates, the research for the content was conducted by Nathaniel Ramos and Jirena Sagás, University of Denver Master's of Library and Information Science students.
