

COLORADO DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH CARE POLICY AND FINANCE,
DIVISION FOR INTELLECTUAL AND DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES (DIDD)
and the COMMUNITY CENTERED BOARD SYSTEM (CCB)

Colorado Division for Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (DIDD)
1570 Grant Street
Denver, CO 80203
(303) 866-2993

Purpose:

State agency responsible for services for people who have a developmental disability with an IQ \leq 70 and adaptive behavior needs. The Division for Developmental Disabilities contracts with private not-for-profit agencies in local communities who are designated as community centered boards and who determine eligibility and provide services, either directly or through purchases of services. Each of the community centered boards throughout Colorado has a designated geographical service area. This is the only agency that can provide long-term support.

Eligibility:

Based on the presence of a developmental disability.

Appears before age 22.

Creates a substantial handicap which results in decreased general intellectual and adaptive functioning.

Can be the result of mental retardation, cerebral palsy, epilepsy, autism or other neurological conditions.

Services: Offered through organizations designated as CCBs and service agencies throughout the state:

- Family support services
- Case management
- Adult vocational and community day services
- Individual and group residential services
- Transportation
- Community supported living arrangements
- Supported employment services

Application process and timeline: Eligibility must be determined. Waiting lists for services can be very long. Individuals can be added to the wait list at the age of 14 for services which start at 18 or later.

DIVISION OF VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION (DVR)

Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR)
1575 Sherman, 4th Floor
Denver, CO 80203
(303) 886-4150 Toll free 1(866) 870-4595

Purpose:

To assist individuals who have a physical and/or mental disability in attaining a level of functioning that will enable them to enter, reenter or maintain employment and enhance skills for living independently.

Eligibility:

Presence of a physical or mental impairment which creates a substantial impediment to employment and that the individual needs vocational rehabilitation services to prepare for, enter, engage in, or retain gainful employment. An individual is presumed to be able to benefit in terms of employment unless clear convincing evidence demonstrates that he or she cannot attain an employment outcome.

Application process and timeline:

Eligibility must be determined within 60 days after referral unless exceptional unforeseen circumstances require additional time. Services are time limited. Referral should be made during the student's last year of school so that eligibility can be determined and a plan developed. Before the student leaves school, apply at your nearest Vocational Rehabilitation Office. Call to schedule an appointment with a counselor. Bring any and all medical and employment history information.

Order of selection:

When there are not sufficient funds to provide services to all eligible individuals, they will be provided services in a priority order based on the severity of their disabilities. All eligible individuals with the most severe disabilities will be served before individuals with severe disabilities, and all individuals with severe disabilities will be served before individuals whose disabilities are not severe.

- Assessments and evaluation will determine eligibility, nature and scope of services needed, and the order of selection priority classification, when applicable.
- Individuals who have begun to receive services after eligibility will continue to get services, regardless of the severity of their disabilities.
- All applicants shall receive services necessary to establish eligibility.

Services: Services are based on the functional limitations identified during the preliminary and comprehensive assessments to determine eligibility and vocational rehabilitation needs. Services can include:

- Evaluation and diagnostic services
- Vocational counseling and guidance services
- Rehabilitation technology
- Other supports necessary to obtain and maintain employment
- Job Placement
- On-the-job training
- Independent living services
- Referral services

CHILD WELFARE SERVICES
CHAFEE FOSTER CARE INDEPENDENCE PROGRAM

Colorado Department of Social Services
1575 Sherman Street, 2nd Floor
Denver, Colorado 80203
(303) 866-5932

Purpose:

State program providing independent living preparation through county service coordinators to youth who are preparing to emancipate from foster care services. This program is not specific to youth with disabilities. However, many of the youth in foster care are receiving special education services and efforts should be made to coordinate services with their case manager.

Eligibility:

Youth aged 16 and older in the custody of county Departments of Social Services. Youth must be in out-of-home placement at the time of referral, but may continue with the program once out of placement in independent living.

Services:

- Individualized comprehensive assessment
- Group and individual skill training
- Training in job seeking/job development
- Assistance with housing options
- Training for caseworkers and care providers
- Coordination with other agencies serving youth

Application process and Timeline:

Referral is made through the student's social services case coordinator. For students living in a group home or foster home, contact the student's case manager to coordinate transition services.

COLORADO OFFICE OF BEHAVIORAL HEALTH and COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH CENTERS

Colorado Office of Behavioral Health
3824 West Princeton Circle
Denver, CO 80236
(303) 866-7400

Purpose:

State agency serving persons with mental health needs through Community Mental Health Centers [CMHCs], specialty clinics, Mental Health Assessment and Service Agencies [MHASAs] and two State Institutes in Pueblo and Ft. Logan.

Eligibility:

Presence of major psychiatric diagnosis, chronic mental illness or psychiatric emergency. Services are provided to persons who are either Medicaid eligible or who are without adequate health insurance.

Services:

- Inpatient hospital services
- Crisis and emergency services
- Therapy services
- Medication and prescription monitoring
- Case management including planning and referral
- Consultation and education
- Vocational services for adults
- Day treatment or residential support services for children and adolescents.

The service needs of youth who are seriously emotionally disturbed and their families can be extensive. The Division of Mental Health believes that services are best provided within the community. This belief is best demonstrated through the establishment of youth and family centered services requiring the integrated effort of community agencies as a means of providing quality care and treatment for these individuals. State funding is limited so eligibility for services is prioritized.

Application process and timeline:

Contact local community mental health center. Agencies serve persons of all ages, based on need.

Each community college, four-year college and university will have an Office of Disability Services. Most schools now have web pages with basic information. Colorado Options: A Handbook of Post-Secondary Education Services for Students with Disabilities provides information about Colorado schools, including information about accessing services and how to select a college. It is available on the CDE website at www.cde.state.co.us.

Purpose:

Disability services providers at each community college, four-year college and university assist students with disabilities to select courses and obtain the supports necessary to succeed in the post-secondary education setting.

Eligibility:

In order to receive reasonable accommodations at the postsecondary level, a student must contact the Office of Disability Services and provide appropriate documentation that will verify the existence of a disability and support the request for services. The type of documentation required may vary by school and by disability. An IEP alone is not sufficient documentation. Adult education and postsecondary education programs, which receive federal funds, are under the obligations of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The special education services and protections that a student receives under IDEA in high school end when a student either graduates or ages out at the age of 21 and do not carry over into post-secondary education programs.

Services:

Services available and level of support will vary from school to school and, there may be an additional fee for services. Some schools offer specific programs for students with learning disabilities. Typical services offered may include:

- Comprehensive assessment
- Career and vocational counseling
- Individual and/or small group support
- Test accommodations
- Note taking assistance and/or readers
- Computer adaptations
- Materials in alternative formats
- Use of specialized equipment such as enlargers or amplification devices
- Assistance working with professors to obtain necessary accommodations
- Self-advocacy training and mentoring
- Basic skills courses including study skills
- Sign language interpretation for classroom and labs

Application and timelines:

For further information, contact your high school guidance counselor, special education teacher, or the post-secondary school you are interested in. Begin the search process as early as possible, at least 6 months in advance of classes.

SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

(For SSI Benefits)

1500 Champa Street, 2nd Floor Suite 200

Denver, CO 80202

1(800)772-1213

Purpose of SSI (Supplemental Security Income):

Provides supplemental income to persons with significant disabilities who are not working or are unable to generate an adequate income through employment.

Each eligible person is entitled to receive monthly checks based on current federal payment schedules. If a person is determined eligible for SSI/SSDI, then he/she is usually eligible for other programs such as Food Stamps or Medicaid. However, you may have to apply for each program separately.

Eligibility:

For (SSI) Supplemental Security Income

Must meet income and/or resource criteria

Under 18:

A child is considered eligible for SSI when a child's functional limitations as a result of a physical or mental disability:

- are such that the child cannot engage in age appropriate behavior or the same activities that other children of similar age normally engage in; and
- are such that if an adult had the same limitations, that adult would be considered disabled.
- eligibility is based on the parent's income and resources.

18 or older.

A physical or mental disability that is expected to keep you from substantial gainful activity for at least 12 months. When a person is 18, his/her own income and resources are taken into consideration, not that of the parents.

Blind:

Vision no better than 20/200 or limited visual field of 20 degrees or less in the better eye with glasses

Services:

Supplemental income

Medical benefits through Medicaid

Assistance with filing for services

Plan for Achieving Self Support program (PASS)

Application process and timeline:

Call 1-800-772-1213 for information or to make an appointment. Apply for SSI for your disabled child at any age. Eligibility will be based on the parent's assets and income. If your child was denied due to your income and resources, reapply shortly before your son or daughter's 18th birthday. When a person is 18, his/her own income and resources are taken into consideration, not that of the parents. The application process can take up to a year. It is not uncommon to be turned down the first time. Ask for assistance to re-apply. You can obtain disability specific information on the SSA website at www.ssa.gov/work.

SCHOOL TO WORK ALLIANCE PROGRAM – SWAP

2211 W. Evans
Denver, CO 80223
(3030) 866-3100

Purpose:

The School to Work Alliance Program (SWAP) is a collaborative initiative between the Colorado Division of Vocational Rehabilitation and local school districts, which is supported by the Colorado Department of Education. The purpose of the program is to provide successful employment outcomes and increased community linkages for DVR eligible youth who have mild to moderate needs in employment. The program currently involves approximately 110 school districts that cluster into 35 SWAP sites.

Eligibility:

SWAP is an optional program available to youth who:

- Are between the ages of 16 and 25;
- Are in school (served by 504, special education, or at risk of dropping out)
- Are out of school (graduates, drop-outs, under or unemployed);
- Are eligible for DVR services; and
- Need short-term support to become competitively employed.

Services:

Clients being served through SWAP are eligible for services typically provided through DVR.

Services provided will vary based on the needs of the individual and may include:

- Vocational assessment
- Career exploration
- Career development
- Employment related instruction
- Job development
- Job placement
- Case management
- One year of follow-up services after successful employment
- Referral to other service providers for economic and disability related employment supports such as housing, child-care, transportation, etc.

Application and timelines:

Application is made through your local DVR office. Referral may be made through a DVR counselor or through a District or BOCES SWAP Coordinator. Contact your Special Education Director or the DVR office nearest to you for information.
