

COLORADO
Department of Education

2023 Transition Leadership Institute

Speaker: Andrea Davis, Assistant Principal
Session Title: Work-based Learning for All

The special education team at Canon City High School is passionate about collaboration on secondary transition initiatives, supporting the community-based internship and work program, promoting rigor and relevance, and fostering strong community connections and relationships - with the goal of improving successful post-secondary outcomes for all students. Andrea "Ande" Davis is an Assistant Principal at Cañon City High School in Colorado who oversees building level processes in special education.