2023 Transition Leadership Institute

Speaker: Trude Burnett, Special Education Instructional Coach

Co-Presenter: Marie Naumann, Transition Teacher

Session Title: Supporting Healthy Boundaries in the Transition Years

Trude Burnett, M.A.Ed., - with more than 30 years of experience working with students with disabilities in both the inner city and rural settings, Trude's passion is educating and advocating for students with significant disabilities of all levels to be as independent as possible. As a Special Education Instructional Coach and professional development trainer she has the opportunity statewide and nationally to impact multiple levels of educators, parents, & guardians to help our students build and maintain positive relationships for life.

Marie Naumann, M.A.Ed. has worked as a Special Education teacher for nine years with a diverse population of secondary and postsecondary students with disabilities. She has also managed an Individualized Supported Living home for adults with disabilities. These experiences ignited her passion for helping students to connect with their communities.
