Palabras a su Paso is a developmental model of Spanish literacy from the authors of the Words Their Way® series. This K-5 program builds and expands on phonics, vocabulary, and spelling skills, giving students a solid foundation to master the Spanish language. Palabras a su Paso is a rigorous program based on research using the Spanish spelling inventory with Spanish speakers in the US, Mexico, and Chile. It offers a hands-on approach to word study that parallels the Words Their Way: Word Study in Action program but is based on Spanish orthographic principles. This innovative approach teaches students to look closely at words to discover the spelling patterns, syllable structures, and spelling-meaning connections of Spanish orthography that are needed for reading and writing. The program focuses on the word sort—the process of physically grouping words or pictures into specific categories. The word-sort process is particularly supportive for students and teachers in bilingual settings and is equally effective in classrooms that use only one language.
