We will use funds to support one on one reading tutoring with an experience tutor and/or para focused on providing supports and instruction for primary grad emerging readers and elementary students that are on READ plans. We have seen an overall decline in the level of readiness of our students coming into kindergarten (likely as a residual effect of COVID and the extended closures of the earlychildhood and preschool program). We want to provide daily one on one support to help emerging readers and to provide additional reading support for our ELL students Our expected outcomes are to see consistent reading growth (as demonstrated by regular Star 360 benchmark testing) for 100% of students that are being provided one-on-one tutoring supports. We will use a combination of El Education Reading and Fundations Supplemental Programs as the frameworks to structure and guide the tutoring time, which will be overseen by our new Elementary Reading coach/ and interventionist (who is being funded through other sources).

☑ The tutoring service is focused on increasing students' foundational reading skills of phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary development, reading fluency including oral skills, and reading comprehension for students who receive instructional services pursuant to READ plans
