

Wes Ogburn: Yeah! Thanks Adam!

John Humphrey: 1.21 GIGAWATTS?!?

Allison Greene:
https://jamboard.google.com/d/1KBkRbYtEclBmCEzu_dSdHKhZ46XpcB4xQ_RyJliu6yw/edit?usp=sharing

Wes Ogburn: Yeah!

Niki Van Essen: This is what we are using in TSD. This can be found on the MTSS webpage for TSD: <https://venngage.net/ps/NAjJgn7GbTl/dbpsdm-4stepprocess>

Wes Ogburn: Yeah! I see considerable overlap with prevention efforts within Restorative and SEAL practices

Allison Greene: https://jamboard.google.com/d/1KBkRbYtEclBmCEzu_dSdHKhZ46XpcB4xQ_RyJliu6yw/edit?usp=sharing

Adam Collins: If you have any questions, please feel free to unmute and ask, or type in the chat

Wes Ogburn: Yes! Sharing student data with students! Very powerful!

Niki Van Essen: screening for all, defining potential problem areas...diagnostic analyzing why there is a problem (root cause analysis)

Wes Ogburn: Ah—copy

Delhia Mahaney: Can I add to that about SWIS?

Niki Van Essen: That is a great point - With the schools I coach, I advise them not to use other or unknown in SWIS. And we train a lot on FBAs as a district.

devon davey: Sorry, I need to go. Thank you for a wonderful meeting! I look forward to watching the end on the recording.:)

Adam Collins: Thanks, Devon!

Adam Collins: www.surveymonkey.com/r/BPEGWebinar02-01-21

Wes Ogburn: Thanks Adam! Loved seeing what other folks are doing

David Rein: Thanks Adam

Chloe Zagar: Thanks!

John Humphrey: Thanks, Adam!

Deana Pachelli: Thank you!

Niki Van Essen: Bye! thanks!

ewingj: Thanks Adam!