

WHS College and Career Pathways

Weld Re-4 and Windsor High School are pleased to offer a variety of college and career pathways. These pathways are designed to enable students to earn college credit while in high school in a variety of different ways. The chart below shows each program and the associated financial obligations of the student and the district. Please see your school counselor for more detailed information and applications.

Program Offering	Tuition	Fees	Books & Supplies	Testing / Certification	Application Deadline	Course Offerings
 Windsor High School Advanced Placement: Taught at WHS by WHS Faculty and approved by College Board					Courses selected in Course Registration. AP Contract due by last day of Spring semester of school year prior to course.	English Language and Composition, English Literature and Composition, Spanish Language and Culture, Statistics, Music Theory, Studio Art, Human Geography, World History, Psychology, US History, Biology, Chemistry, Physics I, Statistics
 Windsor High School Dual Credit Courses: Taught at WHS by UNC Adjunct/WHS Faculty					Courses selected in Course Registration. UNC Registration dates vary by course. See instructor for details.	College Composition, College Literature, College Algebra, College Trigonometry, Calculus, Calculus II, Math and Liberal Arts, Spanish IV, Digital Earth, Geology
 Aims Concurrent Enrollment: Taught at Aims campuses by Aims Faculty				 If applicable	April 1 for following Fall semester November 1 for following Spring semester	Any course that WHS does not offer, a course that is beyond those offered at WHS, or a student is unable to take due to schedule conflict.
 UNC Concurrent Enrollment: Taught at UNC campuses by UNC Faculty	 				April 1 for following Fall semester November 1 for following Spring semester	Any course that WHS does not offer, a course that is beyond those offered at WHS, or a student is unable to take due to schedule conflict.
 Aims Career Academy: Taught at Aims campuses by Aims Faculty					April 1 for following Fall semester November 1 for following Spring semester	Communication Media, Automotive Collision, Automotive Service, Graphic Design, Oil and Gas Technologies, Med-Prep Limited space available.
 Aims Career Pathways: Taught at WHS by Aims Faculty					Courses selected in Course Registration.	Emergency Medical Services, Criminal Justice, Fire Sciences
All Concurrent Enrollment, Career Academy, and Career Pathways courses require an application to the college, various contracts, and the Weld Re-4 Concurrent Enrollment Contract in order to participate. See contract for specific details.  Up to $67.50 per credit hour.

Weld Re-4 School District will pay for this aspect of the course.

Individual student is responsible to pay for this aspect of the course.

No applicable costs or fees