

Family Leadership Training Institute

OF COLORADO

What is FLTI?

The Family Leadership Training Institute (FLTI) of Colorado is an initiative created with the core belief that when the tools of democracy are understood, family and community leaders will actively engage in civic life.

Leaders who complete FLTI gain the knowledge and skills to effectively engage with educational systems at the individual, community, school, or policy levels.

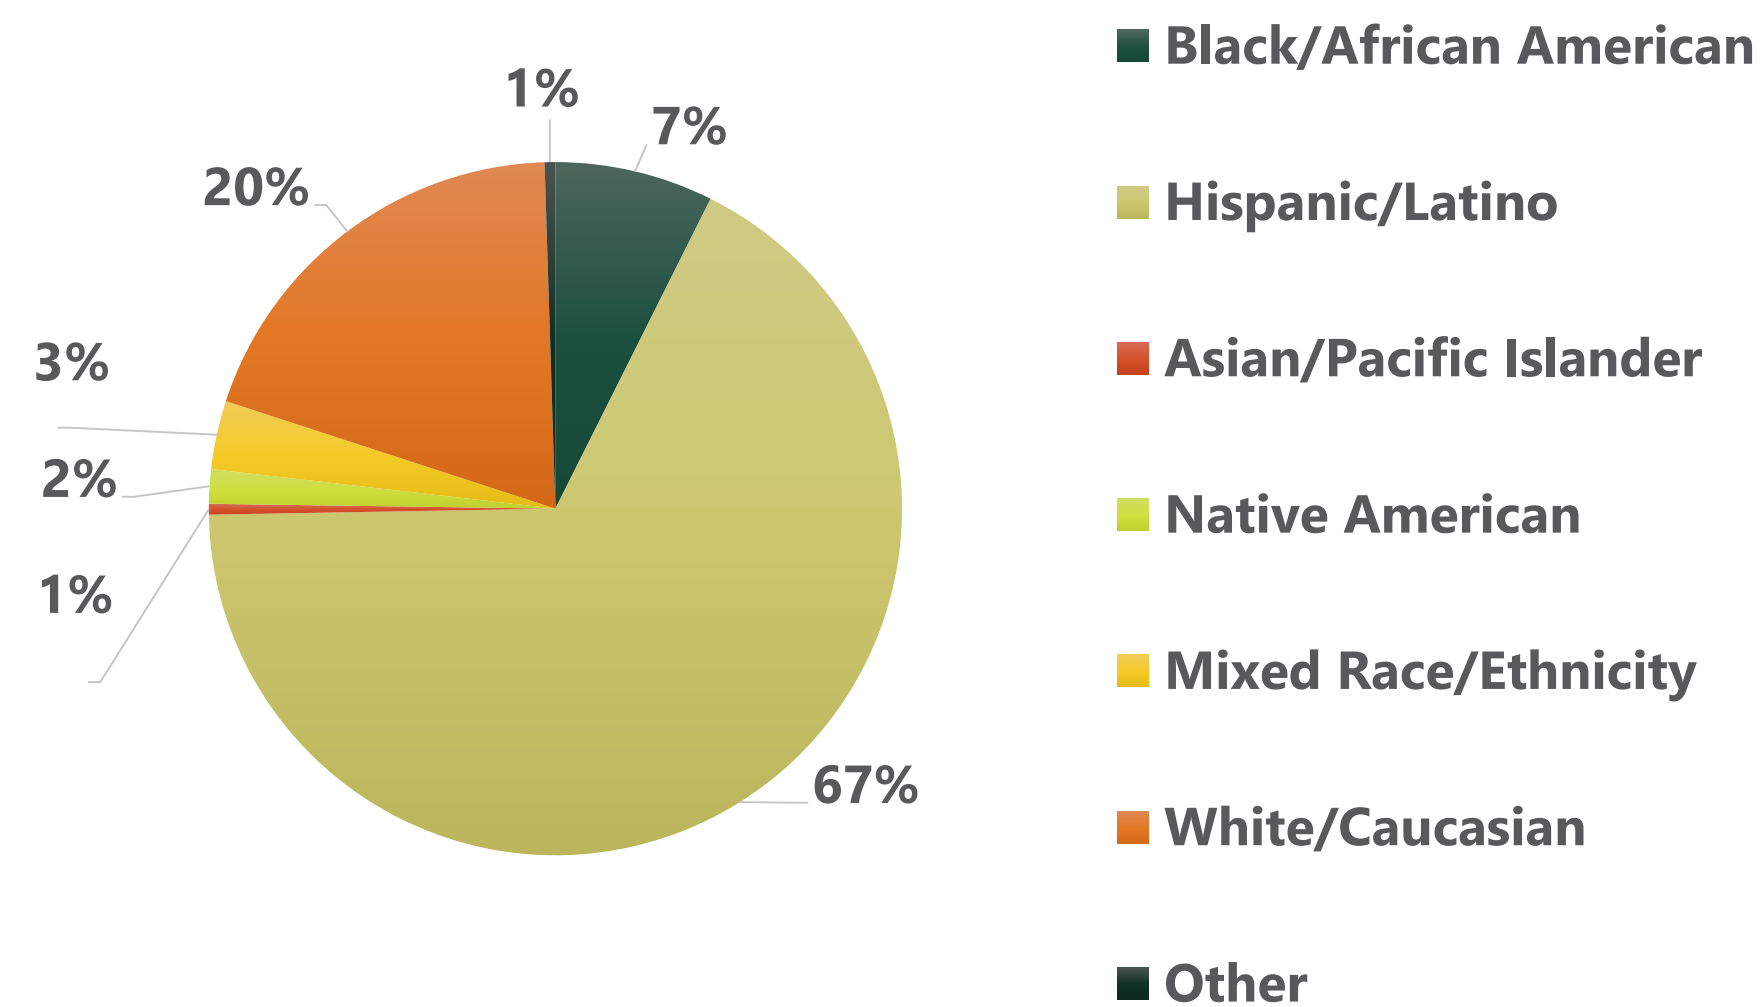

Who are FLTI of Colorado's Family and Community Leaders?

Household Incomes

Over half (53%) participants have Annual Household Incomes at or below $40,000

Race and Ethnicity of Participants

Outcomes of Participants

Participants demonstrated they were nearly 4 times more aware of who their elected representatives for the State Senate and State House of Representatives were after completing FLTI

Colorado State University
EXTENSION

“FLTI gives me the tools to become a better parent leader by becoming more active in my child's life and community by advocating for what is just and fair for the better of all the families. I found my voice and gained the confidence to start conversations with peers, supervisors, and government officials.”

-- FLTI Graduate

FLTI of Colorado Operates in Partnership With:

