This unit was authored by a team of Colorado educators. The template provided one example of unit design that enabled teacher-authors to organize possible learning experiences, resources, differentiation, and assessments. The unit is intended to support teachers, schools, and districts as they make their own local decisions around the best instructional plans and practices for all students.

Colorado Teacher-Authored Sample Instructional Unit

Unit Description:
This unit looks at conflict through the lenses of diverse perspectives (e.g. media, family, community, society, etc.) in order to identify how conflict affects mental and emotional health. Students will utilize narrative and informational texts to identify various conflicts. This unit culminates with students working with peers to create a 5th Grade School Newspaper. The newspaper will encompass all aspects of a “real” newspaper (e.g. comic strips, editorials, sports and news articles) illustrating various conflicts and types of writing.

Considerations:
Teachers may consider how there are many influences that impact a student’s perspective with regard to conflict.

Unit Generalizations

Key Generalization:
Conflict can arise from the sharing of (diverse) perspectives within families and society; conflict can affect mental and emotional health.

Supporting Generalizations:
- Conflict, often portrayed by media in both appropriate and inappropriate forms of emotional response can reveal disagreements and provide unique opportunities to bring about positive forms of change.
- Internal and external conflict can help drive characters’ actions and reactions in narrative texts.
- Comprehension strategies and the use of informational text features help readers develop greater/deeper understanding of various texts and assists in performing specific tasks.
- Writing informational and opinion texts assists in examining a topic, supporting a point of view and conveying ideas logically and clearly.

Performance Assessment: The capstone/summative assessment for this unit.

Claims:
(Key generalization(s) to be mastered and demonstrated through the capstone assessment.)
Conflict can arise from the sharing of (diverse) perspectives within families and society; conflict can affect mental and emotional health.

Stimulus Material:
(Engaging scenario that includes role, audience, goal/outcome and explicitly connects the key generalization)
You and your group will become reporters to create articles for a 5th grade school newspaper. The focus of the articles will be on various types of conflict (e.g. world, country, community, school, interpersonal, etc.). Just like in a real newspaper, you will get the chance to develop comic strips, editorials, sports, and news articles that illustrates conflict.

Integration Continuum Color: Blue  Green  Pink  Yellow
Green: Active involvement in developmentally appropriate knowledge production results in work that fuses both disciplines.

BLUE: Equal and significant attention is given to techniques, skills, or concepts of both disciplines. Authentic experiences and media are used.

PINK: Work combines some techniques, skills, and concepts from both disciplines, but proficiency is uneven.

YELLOW: Peripheral affective goals are met through the work. Learning is demonstrated in one discipline or the other, but not both.
Product/Evidence:
(Expected product from students)

Students will work in groups to produce a newspaper that includes articles demonstrating various types of conflict (e.g., internal, external, interpersonal, appropriate, inappropriate, diversity, etc.), as well as various types of writing (e.g., narrative and informational). Newspapers must include:
- editorials (opinion)
- news articles (summary)
- cartoon (can be political)
- sports
- advice column (informational, resolution skills)

Differentiation:
(Multiple modes for student expression)

Students may:
- chose to write, draw, scan, video their newspaper contribution
- choose or be purposely assigned their newspaper contribution
- be a partner reporter
- use technology, paper/pen, etc. for a medium

---

Texts for independent reading or for class read aloud to support the content

Assessment:

Students will create a narrative and informational text wall as a class to show the key elements of each of the two texts, discussing the value of the elements to assist with comprehension.
Differentiation:
(Multiple means for students to access content and multiple modes for student to express understanding.)

Access (Resources and/or Process)
- The teacher may:
  - Provide leveled texts to show examples
  - Assign purposeful partners

Expression (Products and/or Performance)
- Students may:
  - Be provided leveled texts for examples
  - Be assigned a partner to verbally share ideas

Extensions for depth and complexity:

Access (Resources and/or Process)
- The teacher may:
  - Provide opportunity for students to create a class bulletin board

Expression (Products and/or Performance)
- Students may:
  - Create a class bulletin board

Critical Content:
- Methods of communication

Key Skills:
- Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension. Read grade-level text with purpose and understanding
- Identify the plot, to include the plot line, of a story

Critical Language:
- Inferences, Opinion, Informative, Cause and Effect, Text features, Narrative

Learning Experience # 5
The teacher may review comprehension strategies (e.g. main idea, details, predicting) so students can show evidence in knowledge of informational text.

Integration Continuum Color:
GREEN  BLUE  PINK  YELLOW
Pink: Work combines some techniques, skills, and concepts from both disciplines, but proficiency is uneven.

Generalization Connection(s):
- Comprehension strategies and the use of informational text features help readers develop greater/deeper understanding of various texts and assists in performing specific tasks.

Assessment:
Students will work with a partner to perform a reciprocal reading strategy (refer to teacher resources) to demonstrate comprehension of the text.

Differentiation:
(Multiple means for students to access content and multiple modes for student to express understanding.)

Access (Resources and/or Process)
- The teacher may:
  - Provide modified reciprocal reading worksheet
  - Assign purposeful partners

Expression (Products and/or Performance)
- Students may:
  - Use a modified reciprocal reading worksheet
  - Work with a specific partner

- Comprehension strategies

Key Skills:

- Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension
- Read grade-level text with purpose and understanding.
- Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary
- Apply comprehension strategies

Critical Language:

Informative, Text Features, Comprehension, Text to Text, Text to Self, Text to World

Learning Experience # 6

The teacher may verbally give examples of internal and external conflict and then read a narrative text where character(s) are in conflict so students can study the character’s actions and reactions and how the conflict was resolved.

Integration Continuum Color: GREEN BLUE PINK YELLOW

Pink: Work combines some techniques, skills, and concepts from both disciplines, but proficiency is uneven.

Generalization Connection(s):

Internal and external conflict can help drive characters’ Comprehension strategies and the use of informational text features help readers develop greater/deeper understanding of various texts and assists in performing specific tasks.

Learning Experience # 7

Teacher may show video/media clips about conflict so students can identify appropriate and inappropriate responses and media influence to responses of conflict.

Integration Continuum Color: GREEN  BLUE  PINK  YELLOW

Blue: Equal and significant attention is given to techniques, skills, or concepts of both disciplines. Authentic experiences and media are used.

Generalization Connection(s): Conflict, often portrayed by media in both appropriate and inappropriate forms of emotional response can reveal disagreements and provide unique opportunities to bring about positive forms of change.

Learning Experience # 8

The teacher may introduce the 5W’s (who, what, where, when, why) and the difference between fact and opinion of writing so students can apply their skills creating a newspaper article.

Integration Continuum Color: GREEN  BLUE  PINK  YELLOW

Yellow: Peripheral affective goals are met through the work. Learning is demonstrated in one discipline or the other, but not both.

Generalization Connection(s): Writing informational and opinion texts assists in examining a topic, supporting a point of view and conveying ideas logically and clearly.
